WHY SPUDS ARE SO HIGH—YOU HAVE TO EAT RICE CAKES

St. Paul, March 1.—That commission men and speculators are making $1.25 a bushel in handling potatoes, which they formerly handled for 25 cents a bushel, was statement made today by A. M. Dunton, farmer of Bagley, Minn. Dunton says that 600 bushels of potatoes were bought from farmer at $900 and sold for $1,720 in Twin Cities. Deducting $120 for freight and expense in handling, they bring a profit of $700 on the investment of $900 in three days. This, Dunton says, is being done daily. Dunton lives in heart of the potato-raising country of Minnesota.

PRIVATE BANKERS SOAKED

State's Att'y Hoyne handed careless private bankers a little jolt yesterday when his prosecution of the Paisleys landed them on the road to the penitentiary. The father, William Paisley, was ordered sent to Joliet for a year by a jury in Judge Kersten's court. The sons—Oliver F. and James T.—got three years and a fine of $1,400.

They were accused of having accepted deposits after they knew their bank was insolvent.
